

SUMMER SIGHT READING

The middle section of the piece below has been replaced by a sight-reading challenge. When you reach this section, play the four measures of music that rest on the dotted path between the first measure and the last measure, before playing the final line. Next, draw a new four-measure path that begins at the first measure and ends at the last measure. Follow this new path when you play again.

FIRST

LAST

.....

⋮