

Use today's printable to encourage daily piano practice while your students are on Spring Break.

SPRING BREAK PRACTICE BINGO

SPRING BREAK

PIANO PRACTICE BINGO

Copy one piano piece onto blank staff paper.	Improvise a melody for three minutes.	Perform your favorite piano piece while blindfolded.	Perform a FaceTime recital for a friend.	Teach someone a piano game.
Pick an animal. Play a piece, mimicking its personality.	Practice three times in one day.	Memorize a music joke. Tell it to five people.	Play your current piece two octaves higher.	Give yourself three stickers during one practice session.
Draw a spring picture using only music symbols.	Play every piece in one of your old piano books.	FREE SPACE	Play a warm-up exercise as many times as possible in 60 seconds.	Make a performance video. Critique yourself.
Practice every day during the break.	Perform a recital for a stuffed animal audience.	Play three piano pieces. Rename each piece with a spring theme.	Play a piano piece in the dark.	Practice for an entire hour.
Create your own piano game.	Learn to play a new piano piece from memory.	Play one line of music... in reverse!	Find an interesting fact about a composer.	Set a timer. Play your piano piece as slowly as possible.

Perform a FaceTime recital for a friend.	Teach someone a piano game.
Play your current piece two octaves higher.	Give yourself three stickers during one practice session.
Play a warm-up exercise as many times as possible in 60 seconds.	Make a performance video. Critique yourself.
Play a	Practice for

CLICK FOR PRIMER METHOD BOOKS

---

CLICK FOR LEVEL 1 AND 2 METHOD BOOKS

---

CLICK FOR INTERMEDIATE METHOD BOOKS

---

SPRING BREAK

PIANO PRACTICE BINGO

Copy one piano piece onto blank staff paper.

Improvise a melody for three minutes.

Perform your favorite piano piece while blindfolded.

Perform a FaceTime recital for a friend.

Teach someone a piano game.

Pick an animal. Play a piece, mimicking its personality.

Practice three times in one day.

Memorize a music joke. Tell it to five people.

Play your current piece two octaves higher.

Give yourself three stickers during one practice session.

Draw a spring picture using only music symbols.

Play every piece in one of your old piano books.

FREE SPACE

Play a warm-up exercise as many times as possible in 60 seconds.

Make a performance video. Critique yourself.

Practice every day during the break.

Perform a recital for a stuffed animal audience.

Play three piano pieces. Rename each piece with a spring theme.

Play a piano piece in the dark.

Practice for an entire hour.

Create your own piano game.

Learn to play a new piano piece from memory.

Play one line of music... in reverse!

Find an interesting fact about a composer.

Set a timer. Play your piano piece as slowly as possible.