

Today's Christmas In July piano piece is a summer parody based on Good King Wenceslas.

Composed for primer students, it can also be enjoyed as an easy practice piece for older students and as a challenge piece for younger students.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY - PART 4

DEFINITELY NOT

GOOD KING WENCESLAS

A Christmas In July Parody
by Andrea Dow

1

Let's head off to hike the trails. It's time to go camp - ing!

4

5

Through the shad - y spruce and pine, down trails we'll go tramp - ing.

in the shade; laugh - ing, jok - ing, play - ing.

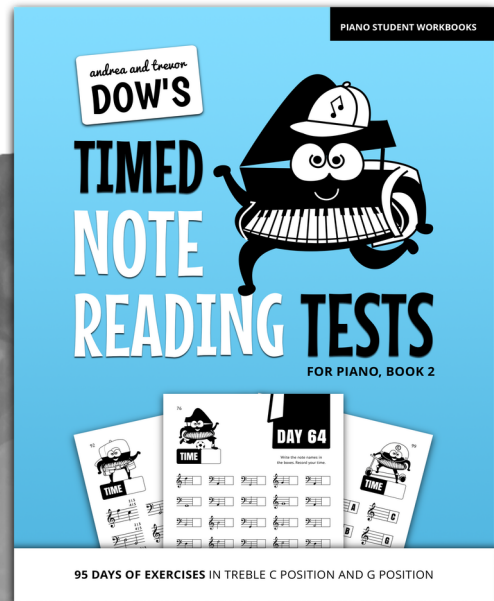

a tree, spend our day just sway - ing.

VERSE 2

y campfire light, telling spooky stories.
that shine so bright, stars in all their glory.
sleeping bags where we'll sleep so cozy.
p to morning dew and a sunshine rosy.

andrea and trevor
DOW'S

TIMED NOTE READING TESTS

BUY NOW

BUY NOW

DEFINITELY NOT

GOOD KING WENCESLAS

A Christmas In July Parody
by Andrea Dow

1

Let's head off to hike the trails. It's time to go camp - ing!

4

5

Through the shad - y spruce and pine, down trails we'll go tramp - ing.

9

Musical notation for measures 9-12. The treble clef contains the melody, and the bass clef contains the accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Set a tent up in the shade; laugh-ing, jok-ing, play-ing." The melody consists of quarter notes in the first two measures, followed by a half note in the third measure, and a whole note in the fourth measure. The accompaniment consists of quarter notes in the first two measures, followed by a half note in the third measure, and a whole note in the fourth measure.

13

Musical notation for measures 13-16. The treble clef contains the melody, and the bass clef contains the accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Hang a ham-mock in a tree, spend our day just sway ing." The melody consists of quarter notes in the first two measures, followed by a half note in the third measure, and a whole note in the fourth measure. The accompaniment consists of quarter notes in the first two measures, followed by a half note in the third measure, and a whole note in the fourth measure. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

VERSE 2

In the dark by campfire light, telling spooky stories.
Watch the flames that shine so bright, stars in all their glory.
Climb into our sleeping bags where we'll sleep so cozy.
We'll wake up to morning dew and a sunshine rosy.